Requirement for Information on Lubricants for Railroads

25X1A2g

25X1X6

1. It would be appreciated if arrangements could be made through for a conference between [redacted] of this Branch, and the 25X1A9a [redacted] on the subject of lubricants. Information in general is desired on the different types and qualities of lubricants used on the railway, quantities consumed and methods of budgeting for lubricant procurement.

2. This type of information is not normally available in published reports, and a sampling of the practices and methods of a major US carrier in the field of lubrication of locomotives and cars is needed for purposes of international comparison. The AAR should not be brought into this particular inquiry.
